Re: U.S. v. Larry Carr
11 Cr. 454 (ARR)

Dear Judge Ross:

On August 29, 2011, the Court revoked, without prejudice to renew, its earlier approval of Mr. Carr's bail modification request regarding travel to South Carolina in connection with his work, since the same had not been approved by PreTrial Services.

With the help of the PreTrial Service professionals, specifically Andrew Prozeller and Erin Rodriguez, in the EDNY, I believe that the "snags" in Mr. Carr's supervision have been remedied. Owing to some confusion regarding supervision by PTS in Georgia, including but not limited to the fact that the nearest PreTrial Office that can supervise Mr. Carr is more than a two hour drive from his home, Ms. Rodriguez has agreed to supervise Mr. Carr with telephone reporting, three times per week. Additionally, Ms. Rodriguez has been provided with Mr. Carr's contact information, including his cell phone.

Ms. Rodriguez has informed counsel that with a system of telephone reporting in place, she has no objection to Mr. Carr working in South Carolina at the carnival that is scheduled to run from September 18, 2011 through the end of the month. The additional time on either end of this modification request is necessary to set up and dismantle the carnival. As stated in our letter of August 26, 2011, government counsel has no objection to this request for a modification of Mr. Carr's bail as outlined herein.

Accordingly, counsel renews the previous application to modify Mr. Carr's bail and permit him to travel to and work in South Carolina, from September 1, 2011 through October 15, 2011.

The Court's attention to this matter is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,
